Plans for Future

Study : I will attend audiovisual production at Feevale University, along with small internships that can be done inside the university. During the course I will learn how to create entertainment videos like: advertisements, short metreage, films, 2D animations, among others.

Work : I intend to work with film production, or even series. At the beginning it will be easier to enter the branch of Youtube, with skits and information programs. But this is a very broad labor market and I can articulate my role in many other areas of the audiovisual.
