

The romance

There was once a girl named Gabriela, life was very difficult, because her parents divorced and a brother who did not care much for her, one day after school the girl decided to go to the mall without parental permission, to miss the girl continued their normal life, the girl at the mall meets a beautiful boy but has difficulty going to talk to him because there is a communication problem, the girl still in love decides to go home. After telling his mother that he left hiding was punished, he stayed on the cell phone for 3 months. After the punishment, the girl decides to return to the mall to see if the boy is there again, a surprise arrives there, the boy was also in love with her, they started to talk and decided to start a serious relationship.

There was once a girl named Gabriela, her life was very difficult, because her parents divorced and a brother who did not care much for her, one day after school the girl decided to go to the mall without parental permission, to miss the girl continued their normal life, the girl at the mall meets a beautiful boy but has difficulty going to talk because there is a communication problem, the girl still in love decides to go home. After telling his mother that he left hiding was punished, he stayed on the cell phone for 3 months.

After the punishment, the girl decides to return to the mall to see if the boy is there again, a surprise arrives there, the boy was also in love with her, they started to talk and decided to start a serious relationship.

After the punishment, the girl decides to return to the mall to see if the boy is there again, a surprise arrives there, the boy was also in love with her, they started to talk and decided to start a serious relationship

They live a perfect life until the girl decides to leave everything because of the death of their parents in an accident, the boy tries to get it out of the girl's head but she does not take it for nothing.

They live a perfect life until the girl decides to leave everything because of the death of their parents in an accident, the boy tries to get it out of the girl's head but she does not take it for nothing.

After the couple arrives at the wake, the boy's parents capture him and he is totally without ground. After months without family, friends and no boyfriend, she decides to start her life again, she leaves the country and realizes that she does not need anyone to survive.

She is happy, things are going well, when she changed the country she created a family with children and dogs Her children grow up and she teaches them the life lesson she has lived, told her story and this story goes on for generations. Never depend on anyone.

About the author: Maria Eduarda is a realist, who reports on things that really happened, this story was based on her aunt Silvana, her aunt helped her write, "it was done with a lot of affection," she says proudly of her work .

Maria Eduarda thanks all readers and awaits the return of these in the next book, I would like your opinion, come to my instragram to give the final feedback.