

My Life

Book summary

this book reports some events that occurred in the course of my life that I take to my life as my most insane stories, I will tell only 2 stories about me so much attention to detail

1 chapter - who am I

Before telling the stories of my life I will explain to all readers who I am! My name is Eduardo Soares de Araújo, I am currently 20 years old and I am very happy with everything that has happened to me and I will share some stories with everyone because I think these stories should not be kept only with a group of friends and family, study currently from the Campos Salles faculty in the course of accounting sciences

2 chapter - The Christmas Insane

I woke up around 6:00 am on the 24th, to help my mother to make all the preparations for Christmas, I accomplished everything she had asked me that morning and the day seemed normal, around 09:00 am, my family arrived to help with the rest of the preparations, but I could no longer help and had many people to help something that had never happened before, my aunt Ieda was making the shin and letting it fall to the floor and burned its own foot.

We took her to the doctor and everything was fine, but when the sun was setting I had to go out to meet some friends of mine and go buy drinks and fruits.

I met my friend and we went to a market at the end of my house, when we arrived we made the purchases of the things that were missing and during the passage of the purchases in the supermarket box the attendant flirted with me and with him he even passed the telephone number for the two .

When it was already 10:40 pm my friends and I went to get more drinks, but now it was a more specific drink was Whiskey, and we were in a very dangerous neighborhood and my friend bumped into the whiskey bottle of a perishable person who was in that place, during the discussion of my friend and this guy, the friends of the guys pointed weapons at us and we were very scared, and we did not pay a new whiskey to the guy and we left for my house, when it was already 2:00 am my girlfriend asked me to go and see her and to give a merry Christmas to her family and I went with my friends that she had talked to take too, her family was also well drunk and my friends also when we arrived at my girlfriend's house we talked to all the people there and we stayed outside the house for a moment that I was talking to my mother-in-law about my girlfriend Jessica , started a fight of my friends with the family of Jessica because my friends ended up kissing the girls who were at the party with their parents, and ended up generating the fight because my friend did more things with my uncle's Jessica and this sparked off the fight, because the girls' father picked it up. I left home and had to take a friend of mine to the hospital because during the fight he broke a finger and it was the most insane Christmas I had during my life.

3 Chapter - My Dating

One day I was touching social networks just like I always do every day, but that day something strange happened, a girl commented in my photo "Hello, how are you?" and I sort of did not understand why she'd done that, but the pride spoke louder I waited a week to call her and asked her why she said that in my picture. After a week I called her and she asked her why she did, she was already late the girl whose name was Jessica was dating a boy and the day of that comment some weeks passed and the girl posted a photo and I saw in my news feed, and I looked at the profile and saw that I had no more pictures with her boyfriend and I decided to call her to talk and she spent a week talking and I called her to go eat out and always the "no" answer, until I gave up and she came after me, and finally we left the second time, April 12, 2017. We were very close to each other always talking and we ended up falling in love with each other, but I always went rolling for some people I liked, but on May 20 I asked her in courtship and she did not accept, so I said to her "I never ask you to date again next time you're going to ask" and on May 27th the day before her mother's wedding she asked me to be dating, but not of her own free will only because she wanted to take me to the marriage and her mother said that I would only if I were her boyfriend outside that it would not be possible for me to go, so she asked for May 27, 2017, and as incredible as it may seem we are still dating and we are very happy

Final considerations

I hope everyone has enjoyed the book and have liked and understood a little about my life and who I am, these stories tell a little about me and the kind of people I am and thanks for reading a little about me
