FIRST CHAPTER

One day, I perceived hot and stinky things, moving by my side, they were my siblings. Although my vision allows me to see only cloudy things, I know that the big and beautiful figure was my mother. It was then that I discovered that I had just been born and that when I felt a cold air, it was because my mother had gone somewhere and when she came back, it was time to eat. However, to find a place to nurse means to push and competing with my siblings, that was annoying, that moment I didn't see any reason in my sibling's existence. Gradually the time passed by and I was getting used to my siblings, they were three, I had two brothers and one sister, and we were all mutts. We lived on the street, sometimes we got cold and hungry, but soon my mommy teaches us how to get food, it was just knocking some big metal things, called "trash can".

The taste of food from that place wasn't good, but I had already gotten used to it. One day, we had the luck to find a beautiful and caring girl with the smell flowers, she gave me something called ration, that was the most wonderful thing I had ever eaten in all my life. That girl with the smell flowers was so cool, that come back to see me every day and always bringing food for me, my siblings and my mom, I loved that girl, she was my human, my person. Suddenly one day, when everything was okay, it appeared a big truck with cages and left me to an unknow place, in that moment I wasn't twith my family anymore, I was alone and just remembered the girl with the smell flowers, she tried to save me, but two men insured her, and she couldn't help me.

SECOND CHAPTER

When I arrived at the animal shelter i saw many dogs baking, waiting for an owner. At first, I didn't like that Place but after over the years i got used. I lived in the shelter during a long time.one day when I was already old, my girl with smell flower appeared to take me for her home. When she sees me, she was very happy and said... - I don't know why, but even with so many puppies here, I lived of you, the cutest old little dog of the world, besides that I have almost certain that you are the puppy they took from me, many years ago. I was very happy to be with my person again. As A was old, after a few months I saw everything going dark and i realized I was dying.

THIRD CHAPTER

A few years later, I was in a pet shop, trapped in a cage, waiting for a home, there was no mother and brothers to hate anymore. A futile and useless life, what is the meaning all of this? However, one day I met her, while I was in prison, a beautiful girl came to the pet shop, it was love at first sight. A few minutes later she decided to adopt me and gave me a new home. Quickly caught me in her lap, as a small chihuahua, I put the tongue out of happiness. we went to her house, beautiful as she was, big and spacious. There, we lived many years of happiness, a lot of games, walks in the park, pool parties and even shopping at the mall, but one day, during an oversight, while we played the ball in the giant yard, I ran out of the house to catch the ball, as I picked it up, a car headlight came on, I just heard the scream of the beautiful girl. Too late. I ended up dead in this accident in front of my long-desired home.

FOURTH CHAPTER

Now, I am, here, in the city fire department, but you must be wondering, what do you mean? because it is, it is difficult to explain, but I lived a very hectic and different life too. As I had a pleasure, but I had times my sleep interrupted, but I liked it, I loved to work, my partner Ron was always with me, he was a tall guy and nicknamed me “my friend”, I think it’s so cool. I became an important dog in my job, they always greeted me and gave me food. I adored affection. I lived in the corporation, but I'm not afraid to be alone, this place has always been very crowded. Amazing. It was so much fun to be with people, play and train. I loved to train. I always wanted to do my best in the corporation. One day I was playing with a ball that Rony gave me, it was green, we were summoned with his partner Ed to save another life or some lives. We went quickly to the place which was partially disfigured, in other words, crumbled.

We left the big fire truck and headed for the rubble, imagine one of the worst moments for a dog, it demands too much attention and I was the Dalmatian, I must be alert to the commands. Along with the cops, Rony and Ed visualized the best solution while I was standing next to him. Making the best choice it, begin the job, to take the remnants of concrete, to start rescuing people with my help, but in certain points, even knowing the risk of at any moment to another part fall, you did not imagine that would be justly that moment, Rony is along with the first to reach the sermons struck by the rubble, he still survived, even with the experience after this event, but I, I ended up dying instantaneously.

FIFTH CHAPTER

What looked impossible happened! I was alive again! This time in a place called vet. I was a female poodle of brown color. What I can't understand, it was how I live reborn so many times, I had already lived on the streets, when I was a mutt, after I lived with my human, the girl with the smell flowers, at that time I was a chihuahua, after this, I worked in a fire department, with my other human the Rony, together we saved many people. But after all of this I'm here, alive again, what will be the purpose of my life?

A FEW DAYS LATER

Tiffany, was this the name of the girl with the smell flowers that I loved, she was there for wash me and take home, she knows that was my human and I was her dog. was the destiny, uniting us one more time.
- Come on Molly! Said Tiffany.

- You know Molly, since my dog max died, I think I would never love another dog again, but when I saw you it was as if we already knew each other a long time. You remind me Max, a little dog on the street that I helped when I was a child. Tiffany if I could speak that I was these two dogs you are saying... The years passed, and Tiffany and I were inseparable, we went to the mall, parks and going trips together, I was the happiest dog in the world. Suddenly, one day Tiffany started feel bed, and died, I was wrong, I was whoever dies and after come back to always be with my human's girl Tiffany...

YEARS LATER

I get used to live without my Tifany, until I started to see all dark I already know that I was dying and this time forever. Suddenly I am a shining White Light arise and there were all people that I most loved in life, I found my Tiffany and Rony, it was so that I discovered my purpose: to be all eternity with my people.
