

I saw the love
in your eyes!

Jully: Not Ambar! I told you, I'm not going to this party

Ambar: Please Jully, you know that Anthony will be at this party and I want to see him today.

Jully: All right, but you owe me one.

On the same day, the night, Amber waited jully in front of the marked spot.

Ambar: At last you got a friend, I was afraid you'd change your mind. Let's go in, I think Anthony's here.

Jully: I came, but I'm not going to stay long. To stay on the sail? Never!

Anthony: hello jully! Are you okay?

Jully: Hi

Ambar: Hello Anthony! We're fine, thank you for asking.

Anthony: Would you like something to drink, Jully?

Jully: No!

Ambar: I want to

Anthony: Ask the Waiter

Jully: I'll get you a drink, Ambar, I'll be right back.

Ambar: thanks Jully

Ambar calls Jully and Says

Ambar: You don't have to come back soon, so I'm alone with Anthony.

Jully: actually tonight you're not going to see me anymore.

Jully goes towards the door and bumps with a boy,
they look and Jully goes away.

-The next day Amber and Jully meet at a cafeteria that used to go

Jully: So how was the party?

Ambar: It all went wrong

Jully: why?

Ambar: As soon as you left Anthony was looking for you and after that I didn't see him the whole party

Jully: That strange I didn't find Anthony, Comes out so fast I bumped into almost everybody.

Ambar: Look what a coincidence Anthony is here, this time with other boy.

Jully: I think I've seen that little boy somewhere

Anthony: Hi guys, this is my cousin Brandon, he came back from Brazil last week.

Brandon: Hi, I have a feeling I know you from somewhere.

Anthony: Impossible

Jully: I have this same feeling

Ambar: I am Ambar and this is Jully and I have seen that it has rolled a climate

"Long after..."

Brandon: Well, girls, it's getting late and we have to go, right, Anthony?

Anthony: Yes. We have to go... Until another day, girls!

Brandon and Anthony leave the cafeteria leaving the girls alone

Ambar: And then what?

Jully: What?

Ambar: You and Brandon have talked a lot. There was a climate, i could feel it from here.

Jully: Climate? Don't invent, him until it's cool. Jully: Please, don't even start
