

Brazil in the cups he won

The 1958 edition of the fifa World Cup marked the sixth participation of the Brazilian football team in this competition. He was the only country to participate in all editions of the fifa tournament, q fact that persists to this day.

Brazil came for the second time in a final and would face hostess Sweden. The selection would obtain its first world wide title.

The tactical scheme of the Brazilian coach made zagallo attack and retreated to score the midfield giving 4-3-3. With this , Brazil showed the most solid defense of the world (4 goals suffered). On the front, the trio Pelé- Garrincha and Vavá made history.

In the quarters Brazil faced France and won from 1 to 0, in the semi Brazil faced France and won from 5 to 2 and went to the final of the World Cup, in the final Brazil won from Sweden 5 to 2 and won his first world cup.

The World Cup of 1962 was the seventh edition of the World Cup, which took place May 30 until June 17. The event was based in Chile with sixteen national selections. The 1962 edition of the World Cup marked the seventh participation of the selection Brazilian football team in this competition.

He was the only country to participate in all fifa tournament edition, a fact that will persist for at least the edition held in Russia in 2018. It was the first in which Brazil defended the championship title after the conquest of the World Cup in Sweden in 1958.

The final of the 1962 fifa World Cup was disputed by Czechoslovakia, which had eliminated Yugoslavia and Hungary and Brazil, which had eliminated Chile and England. The match was held on June 17 at 2:30 p.m national stadium of Chile, with an estimated audience of 68679 people .

The Brazilian soccer team participated for the ninth of the fifa World Cup. The then two time World champion ranked first in her group in eliminations for the World Cup. It was drawn in group 3, where it faced England, Romania and Czechoslovakia, being classified in the first place.

In quarter-finals, he defeated Peru, beat Uruguay in the semifinals and won the title by beating Italy in the final. The Brazilian team of this cup had players of great national and international prestige, such as Pele, tostão, Rivellino, gerson, among others, being elected by world soccer magazine the best soccer team off all time.

In the semi final against Uruguay, in the semifinals, Brazil won by 3-1 lead with goals from Rivellino and Jairzinho in game marked in another famous pitch by Pelé, in which he applies a body dibbles in the Uruguayan and kicks the ball out. The cup final was played by the Brazilian and Italian teams at the Azteca stadium. The match was won by Brazil, by the score of 4 to 1.

The 1994 edition of the World Cup marked the fifteenth participation of the Brazilian football selection. In this campaign, the four-time champion had its final match against Italy on July 17, 1994. After a 0-0 at normal time and in the extension, the decision was for the collection of penalties. Taffarel did his part, Dunga, Romário and Branco converted to Brazil, who won by 3 to 2 in the competition. It was the only country to participate in all editions of the FIFA tournament, a fact that persists until the last World Cup in 2018.

Tension was great and inevitable both three-time world champions Brazil and Italy fought for the tetra and hegemony of world football. A goalless draw, with a right to the ball on the crossbar and wasted chances, took the decision for the penalties and in the end the Brazil left the world champion tetra.

The 2002 world cup's edition marked the seventeenth participation of Brazilian soccer team in the competition. The country the status of only country to participate in editions of the fifth title of the tournament by beating Germany in the final 2-0.

A disputed Asian Cup meant Brazilians had to face a difference of 12 hours in the time zone.

That is, to follow the broadcasts of the games, it was necessary to make up at dawn or early in the morning.

The national team came to the decision unbeaten. In the debut, defeated turkey by 2 to 1 in the second game, thrashed China 4-0, and in the third round of the group state, beat Costa Rica 5-2. In the round of 16, they eliminated Belgian 2-0 in the quarterfinals, England bid farewell to World Cup with a defeat to Brazil by 2 to 1. In the semifinal, the Brazilian selection defeated turkey again, this time, by 1 to 0 on scoreboard.