

The miracle of faith

This book is based on a film called The Miracle of the Faith, with some changes.

In in the city of Sofia, Bulgaria, live approximately 1.25 million people. In special the family of Rita smith (mother), David Smith (father), Samuel Smith (son), a perfect family that strongly follows the principles of God. On a normal day like the others, Rita woke up, made breakfast for her and for Samuel to have it together: -Samuel, wake up son!! It's time to go to school!! The breakfast is already on the table! Samuel replied wearily: -more 5 minutes mom! Meanwhile, David had already gone to work. Samuel was at that time of his life... that time of adolescence, when children do not want to pay attention to their parents' opinions anymore, they no longer think of pleasing their parents, even less giving them love and affection; Samuel then left the house without hugging his mother tightly as usual. These attitudes made her sad, but she didn't care so much and followed her day. Then, she went to church, as usual, they always had meetings with some members of the church. And then she picked Samuel at school. On Sunday, Rita went to the church and met a new priest, Ricardo, and as usual, Rita participated on the meeting. After two minutes of meeting had passed, someone entered the room interrupting it and said: - Let's all leave, now it's my turn to use the room. When Rita looked, she stumbled into Ricardo: "Hello Priest, I don't know if you were informed, but we use this room to hold meetings every morning." The Shepherd replied with a mocking look, saying: -That's cool, but you're going to have to find another place today. Rita was not satisfied with the new priest, but she and her colleagues left the room anyway. Samuel was a dreamy and passionate basketball boy and wanted to pursue a career in that area. On the same day Samuel had basketball championship, so Rita met David, and together they went to his son's school. As Samuel played, Rita shouted wildly: -GO, SAMUEL, BRING IT, PICK THE BALL, SCORE A BASKET FOR MOMMY Said and done, Samuel scored several baskets on that day, when the game ended Samuel along with his two friends, Felipe and John, they asked Rita if Samuel could sleep in John's house along with Felipe, Rita was kind of suspicious, but let the son go. Rita and David went home to have a lovely romantic dinner, they had dinner and went to bed, but before they sleep, they prayed asking for their son's protection. Meanwhile, Samuel and his friends had a lot of fun at John's house, they played basketball, baseball, ate lots of goodies and finally Felipe gave the idea of going to play on the street. Felipe's street had a frozen lake and Samuel said when he stepped on the frozen lake: "Would it be a good idea to slip here?" His friends looked at each other with a knowing look and laughed; The lake was very frozen for them, because it hadn't been hot for a long time. And then the three of them slipped on the ice, a resident who spotted his friends told them to leave but they didn't, so the resident called the police. So they ran off, but suddenly the villager heard shouts from the boys yelling: -HELP!! HELP, somebody help us!!! When the villager saw that the three boys had fallen into the lake, he went into despair but the police and the ambulance were already on the way, he ran to the boys being very careful not to fall and was able to pull Felipe, who unwittingly gave a kick in the face of Samuel who already unconscious took John to the bottom of the lake with him. The ambulance arrived and started to go after for the boys. At the time of the accident Samuel, Philip and John were asleep because it was late, but they were awake because of the tragedy. Felipe's family arrived at the scene and took their son to the hospital. John's family arrived in despair with Samuel's family. Samuel's mother crying, she shouted tirelessly: "Save my son, sir, he's all I have. The most precious thing in my life! I beg you!" And then they search for the two boys for about 10 minutes. The hopes were ending... when they least expected the fireman shouted: WE FOUND THEM!!! Bringing the two unconscious boy to the surface. They were immediately taken into very serious conditions for the hospital. On the way John woke up and still desperate for what happened, he cried a lot! Arriving at the hospital John was taken to the emergency room and Samuel to another emergency room, and Rita, his mother, at no moment she stopped praying. 40 minutes later a doctor came to talk to Rita: -We tried all possible methods, but they were not enough ... Rita didn't believe in the situation and ordered to enter the room to see her son; she arrived there and saw her son in those conditions, she fell and cried a lot, but also prayed a lot! After 10 minutes of praying, talking to God, asking her not to take her child, she heard a noise on the heart rate machine! -HE IS ALIVE!!! - cried Rita immediately The doctors rushed to meet Samuel to help. Finally, the result was that Samuel was in a coma for 2 months, receiving visits from colleagues at the school, including Felipe and John, the Pastor who became a close friend of family and relatives. When Samuel woke, to his mother it was as if she had been born again, she said, It was a miracle! Samuel, already recovered, returned to school, continued to be in love with basketball and when he finished school, pursued career, became a great player of the NBA, the pride of his family
