

Unusual Thinking

NICOLAS AZEVEDO

Unusual Thinking

CNA
2019

Apresentation: this reading has as objective with the mission of man that is to realize his dreams and his conquests and he thought that everything was easy, more in that he deceives the life prepares several obistaculos to give up of everything else creates a focus of not stop for nothing and with a lot of struggle and effort your goal is won.

This is a story about a young man who dreamed of being a soccer player, but his family had no resources, and he decided to be a physical education teacher, his name was Vinicius, he was about 18 years old, at the last school Vinícius decided to take a turn in his life. And then Vinícius finished school he took the next step, and enrolled himself in the course of physical education at a college, because of the new expenses Vinícius decided to get a job at a gym and he succeeded. Vinícius knows a beautiful young woman named Wendy after some dates Vinícius and Wendy decide to start a relationship, after sometime dating Vinícius discovers that he would be a father, Vinícius becomes worried as because he thought how he would take care of his son to sustain them and finish the college. He discovers that he will be the father of a girl, called Maria Clara.

As soon as Maria Clara is born Vinícius is very worried, but he has help from his family, everything was happening well until he discovers that his mother was with a serious tumor and this illness shocked him a lot and he became very worried.

A very bad news came to him, his mother had passed away. Vinicius is very sad because of his mother who helped him, the only person in the universe so she went away, his world collapsed, he lost all of his dreams, he thinks about giving up everything he has lost his away and he could not managed to find his way back, his life turned upside down. After that, Vinícius decided to live with his wife Wendy and his daughter Maria Clara, and a worse news came, Vinícius lost his job at the gym, there comes the brief news in deciding to continue or to dropout of college.

.

However he starts taking a safety course to work in this area until, he can finish his degree, he can finish the course to enter the area, he is happy that he can get a job of security and everything works out well in his new job. Soon after Wendy and Vinícius get married and together they buy a well located apartment. Finally Vinícius after having suffered everything, he didn't have an easy life, but he managed to finish college and graduate as a physical education teacher, everyone thought that Vinícius would not get it, but he came back on to the top and he got his diploma, which he has always dreamed of. Soon after Vinícius is a teacher at a school and a gym, he travels a lot and fulfills all his dreams, buys his dream car, and lives in peace, and every day he thinks about how his mother would be very proud of him. He was finally able to do everything he dreamed of he would always be grateful for everything she did

