

The Most Intelligent

The Most Intelligent L and a very smart boy has a lot of intelligence and the most popular school he likes candy very much has a very intelligent family but he stands out even more because he loves to study has no relationship but he has a look of careless as all his family so it does not attract girls.

M and a very crafty guy but he is very envious of his two friends L and N plus that motivates him to be better than they about everything he chooses chocolates in his house until chocolates and his life everywhere he goes he takes a chocolate with him. M does not have so many members in his family because most of them died in a tsunami, more are still traumatized since then.

N has a very childlike and playful family more N has never followed that influence even though he still play with children's toys until he loves these kinds of toys and the little dads he can even build a little farm.

Light Kira is the smartest of his generation. He is a teacher of L, M and N he helped the most determined one who was L who has the same intelligence as his teacher today, Light and L solved several impossible puzzles, although L is not one normal person he has always stood out among all because of Light.
