This is my cat, Martin. He's my best friend in the whole wide world. He can be a little spoiled at times, but I still love him. Since the quarantine started, he's spent more time with me and my parents, and when I do my stuff, he goes to me and sleeps on my lap, showing how much he loves me. He can be a bit of a pain sometimes, by begging for sweetcorn everyday, which is funny, because cats are carnivores. But he's a loveable cat and I love him and he loves me. When he stays with me, I always stop what I'm doing and spend with him, that's why sometimes I never get to finish my schoolwork. I just love him so much...
