Chapter 2

The wonderful city

The next day, Sofia decided to visit the city and as her father Marcos was busy she decided to go with her grandmother who knew the city better. They went to the Statue of Liberty to take some pictures and send them to the family, when they finished they realized it was lunchtime, and so they invited the family to go to a famous restaurant. Once there, the whole family met again and ate together a guacamole. Finishing Sofia searched on her cell phone for a cool park to go to, she found several but became interested in one called Central Park in the middle of the city and as the car was there at Livia's house and the park was far away they went by subway. In the park there were several birds , plants , flowers , and many people skating : - Grandma did you bring my skates? asked Sofia excited : - Unfortunately no, I'm not sorry. Livia replied:

- Oh grandma, I wanted a lot, but that's okay. Sofia said: -Don't be sad Sofia I think I'm seeing some skates for rent. Livia spoke. And the two went to rent. finishing skating they realized that it was night and that they should go home.

Arriving at my grandmother's house, my father told me that we would go home tomorrow morning. I was devastated but I was missing home. The next day when I woke up my parents were no longer in the room, I went to the living room and saw the bags packed, a separate outfit for me to change and also saw my parents saying goodbye to my grandmother. A little later I went to change , when I finished I went to say goodbye to my grandmother and went to the car to wait for my parents to pick up their bags Coming home I was anxious to see my room and my stuff on the other hand was sad to have to leave my grandmother's house. THE END...

I dedicate this book to my family who I love so much.
