Once upon a picture,
there was a cat named
Max. He was nervous
because it was his first day of school.

Every day, Lily and Moon play together.

But one day, they saw
Max alone.

Because of that, Lily and Moon decided to talk to him.

Until finally, they discovered that Max
could not hear. He was deaf.

And every since that day, they have learned that being different is normal. Max made new friends.
