

THE DOGS ON THE WORD

Por: Maria Paula e Kemilly

THIS DOG THAT YOU SEE IN THE PICTURE ABOVE IS GOLDEN RETRIEVER BREED.

*The golden retriever dogs are medium-large. Of British origin, this breed has emerged in the nineteenth century by mixing three breeds: Irish Setter, Newfoundland and Tweed Water Spaniel.

* The dogs of this breed have coats of cream or gold (most common colors). In England, it is also common for white dogs.

*A coat of these dogs is dense and may be smooth or corrugated.

*The females of this breed weighing between 25 and 27 pounds, while the males are between 27 and 31 pounds.

*They have, on average, 55 to 61 cm in height (adult males). The females are between 51 and 56 cm high.

*They have droopy ears.

*The eyes of dogs of this breed are dark.

BEHAVIOUR AND TEMPERAMENT:

- *They are excellent companion dogs and also hunting.
- * They are friendly, reliable, docile and very attached to family members.
- *They have well developed so the ability to fetch objects.
- *The temperament of goldens retrieveres is balanced.
- *They need attention, affection and caring owners.
- *Because they.

THIS PUPPY Q YOU SEE IN THE PICTURE ABOVE IS THE GERMAN SHEPHERD BREED.

The German Shepherd Dog is that causes more emotions in public. Used by the German military in both World Wars was hated by allies, forbidden to enter certain countries and had the name changed to Alsatian pastor. Fortunately, by their activities guard, guide blind, herding, sniffer, partner, police dog and being present in rescue in disasters that affect all humanity, the German Shepherd has changed this. Today is the only breed of dog that is among the top three records in puppies in almost all countries with cinofilia early.

The dog breed dog should be a harmonious, hearty, noble, brave and strong expression without being hostile. Must be an animal longer than high. The height can vary between 55 to 60 cm for females and 60 to 65 cm for males. All colors are permitted except white. The gray iron, gray with yellow parts, black and yellow with black hood colors are more found, and accepts small white spot on chest.

The fur is dense and still has a layer of undercoat, located deeper than the animal acts protecting against insects, moisture and extreme temperatures. It has medium sized ears, face up. It features long snout and long tail with loads of hair.

The German shepherd is endowed with a remarkable personality and fearless without, however, prove hostile

DOG THAT YOU SEE IN THE PICTURE ABOVE IS BREED CHOW CHOW.

This splendid race, known as Chinese Spitz in some countries, is widespread throughout the world. Your noble and handsome, its beauty and its indisputable coats lush, natural color inevitably provoke the admiration of the entire audience. Is that a dog is also very versatile, being used successfully in many functions. It's a brave guardian and defender of the home guard boats is great, it's great hunter of wild prey, and a tireless dog traction.

It's a dog balanced, leonine in appearance, of proud carriage, dignified, loyal but reserved. It's fast, compact, short and harmonious whole. It has a big nose and black eyes are dark and small, preferably almond. Ears small, are thick and well separated. His chest is broad and deep, its back is short, straight, strong and tail implanted high, carried well folded, resting on the rump.

It is a unique type of dog, thinks that it is one of the oldest known breeds. A bas-relief from 150 BC (during the Han Dynasty) has a hunting dog similar in appearance to the Chow Chow. Recent DNA analysis confirms that it is one of the oldest breeds of dogs.

Chow Chows were originally taught in order to be herding dogs, hunting and guarding.