

THE DOGS

Por: Zé-TEX

CHOW CHOW

Chow Chow is a breed originary from Mongolia, where it is called Songshi Quan, was used has a combat animal, guard animal, sled puller and used has food. Exported by the army were exposed in British zoos. This breed is also known has chinese spitz. Chow Chow is very versatile and it is used in many functions successfully. It is a brave guardian and hunter. It is a very agile, compact, short and harmonious dog. It has a big black nose, his eyes are dark and small. The Chow Chow ears are small, thick and well separated. A Chow Chow's fur is abundant, thick, smooth, straight and slightly hard to the touch. Fonte: Guia de raças

AKITA

Akita is a dog with a hard fur and oily underfur, excellent for hunting in the water because his fur is almost waterproof and resistant to cold. The Akita is a medium-sized dog, very attentive expression and movements agile and precise. Of large size, the height of breed akita male specimen is 67 cm, always measured the height at the withers. The females should measure about 61 cm, with a tolerance of 3 cm or more.

Country of origin: Japan

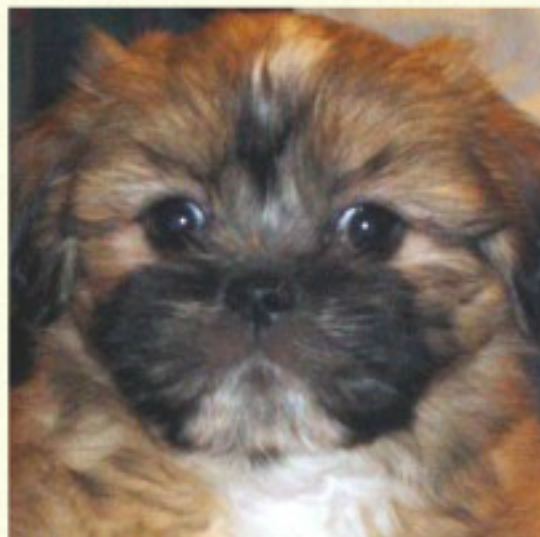

Group: Spitz and primitive dog types

Use: Company dog

Size: Large

Need for daily exercise: Medium / High

Temperament: Calm, Gentle, loyal, Receptive

LHASA APSO

The Lhasa Apso is considered an excellent companion dog, coming from a cross between the Tibetan terrier and spaniel. Character cheerful, full of security but suspicious of strangers, the Lhasa is a great companion dog and also a sentry. The Lhasa is able to perceive sounds in long distance. Lhasa's eyes are dark, medium size. The height of the Lhasa Apso breed is between 22 and 25 cm, measured at the withers height. There are many beautiful colors accepted for this race, but the copies are easily found with white spots in shades of caramel or black.

Country of Origin: Tibet

Group: Companion dog

Use: Company

Size: Small

GOLDEN RETRIEVER

Happy, agile, strong, light movements, expression meek and docile character. These characteristics summarize the main features of the golden retriever, this beautiful hunting dog, who loves to learn and is always ready to work. The Golden Retriever is a very intelligent dog, obedient and is able to perform many different functions. Dark-eyed and well-balanced body, the golden retriever has flat or wavy fur. The golden retriever puppies are happy, playful and very active. They are always around, and love to run and play with their owners. Very companion, golden retriever, is quiet, gentle and patient with children. It is sweet with other animals and strangers.

Country of origin: Great Britain

Group: Retrievers

SIBERIAN HUSKY

The Siberian husky is a medium sized dog, extremely agile and very strong. Native from Siberia, the Husky was used as a draft dog to pull sleds. The Siberian husky is very popular in the United States and Canada, is extraordinarily docile and affectionate with all people. Siberian husky height ranges from 53 to 60 cm for males and 51 to 56 cm for females. The weight ranges from 16 to 27 kg.

Group: Spitz and Primitive Types

Use: Dog Sled

Size: Medium

Need for daily exercise: High

Temperament: Docile, friendly, Gentle

Adestrability: Medium / High

Fonte: Guia de raças